Alderson-Broaddus College requires a housing contract from each student living in the Residence Halls. Failure to complete a housing contract may result in a student being denied registration for classes. You are signing a contract to which you will be held accountable. Before signing, read the contract carefully. Make sure you understand the terms of the contract. Before you arrive on campus, it is expected that you will acquaint yourself with the Alderson-Broaddus Student Handbook which further describes your rights and responsibilities as a student at A-B and which is a part of this contract. If you are under 18 years of age when completing this contract, both you and your parents are required to sign. This contract will remain in effect until you graduate or withdraw from the college. The Room and Board Charges are subject to change.

I have read and agree to the conditions of the contract.
