Intended Major in college:

☐ Music Education
☐ Applied Music
☐ Musical Arts

Interested in auditioning for: (check both if applicable)

☐ Music Scholarship
☐ West Virginians

All students planning to major in music must be accepted into the department on the basis of an audition. One audition will suffice for both acceptance and music scholarship. Music scholarship auditions are separate from West Virginians auditions; both may be scheduled for the same day.

Will you need an accompanist for your audition?

☐ Yes ☐ No

A music faculty member or current AB piano major will be happy to play piano for your audition. It is recommended that you send the accompaniment part to the music department by mail several weeks before your audition date. A warm up/rehearsal time with the accompanist will be arranged prior to your audition.

Will you need accommodations?

☐ Yes ☐ No

Provide the name, address, and phone number of a person other than a relative who is professionally qualified to comment on your musical talent and achievement.
